ASIP Participates in Job Fairs at Jordanian Universities

AMMAN - The Arab Society for Intellectual Property (ASIP), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Foundation (TAG Foundation), took part in the Career Days organized by the Jordan University of Science and Technology, the University of Petra and the German Jordanian University.

Through its participation, ASIP aimed at briefing the attendees on its services and training courses that qualify graduates and job seekers, develop their capabilities and improve their chances of getting jobs that meet their skills and aspirations. The Career Days also provided the chance of direct contact between employers and job seekers that in return provided the youth with an outlook about the latest available job vacancies and trends in the market.

ASIP's participation played a positive role in helping job seekers get the looked-for jobs.

ASIP Holds “Specialized Course in Trademarks”

AMMAN - The Arab Society for Intellectual Property (ASIP) held a specialized training course in trademarks, April 15-19, 2018 at Talal Abu-Ghazaleh General Building - Amman. Over the 15 training hours, participants were briefed on the definition of trademark registration procedures and conditions, ways of protecting the civil, criminal and administrative trademark, and the rights arising from trademark protection including transfer, licensing, renewal, cancellation and reserving.
